Notice of Privacy Practices

We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your information. We follow the privacy practices described in this notice. We will not use or share your information other than described here.

All employees and students at Southwest Rehab will follow this notice. We use or share your medical information in the following ways:

For Treatment.

We use your information and share it with others treating you. This will include your referring physician or nurse practitioner and with each other in order to provide the best care.

For Operations.

We use and share your information to run our practice, provide quality care and contact you when necessary.

For Payment.

We will use and share your information with your health insurance plan to pay for your services. We will share your information to a court of law as part of the collections process.

For Emergencies.

Unless otherwise specified, we will use your information in an emergency.

Appointment Reminders.

We may use your information to contact you about an appointment or to follow up with you after an appointment.

Individuals involved in your care.

We will only disclose information to a member of your family, a relative, or any other person you listed on your intake paperwork. We are permitted to make relevant disclosures to a deceased person's family and friends under essentially the same circumstances such disclosures were permitted when the patient was alive.
